Parsha Pearls is a comprehensive resource that allows for complete customization by the parent. We understand that if you were to strive to accomplish all aspects of each lesson in one day it would be unrealistic and also overload for the child. It is our intention that this be used 'a la carte' so that it suits your specific needs. Our site caters to printing only the pieces you choose.

This page will provide quick links to get to the portion of the document for which you are looking. When you hover over the title a finger will appear. Click on it and you will be taken directly to that page.

If you are new to Parsha Pearls, we have created an Introduction document outlining how to use our lessons, as well as a Scriptural Inspiration document, which explains our titles and the Scriptural inspiration for them. We pray that Parsha Pearls blesses your home and that your children will grow to love the Word and to never depart from keeping Torah. As always, feel free to email us at parshapearls@mtoi.org if you have any questions.

Pearl Seeking

TREASURING HIS WORD

Let's do a quick overview of the entire Torah portion:

Monday:	Gen. 32:3-32	Ya'aqob prepares to meet Esaw; Ya'aqob wrestles with a 'Man' until daybreak and gets his hip dislocated; Ya'aqob's name is changed to Yisra'el
Tuesday:	Gen. 33	Ya'aqob and Esaw are reunited
Wednesday:	Gen. 34	Dinah's story
Thursday:	Gen. 35	Ya'aqob keeps his promise to return to Beyth El; Rahel dies after Binyamin is born; Yitshaq dies
Friday:	Gen. 36	Genealogy of Esaw, father of the Edomites

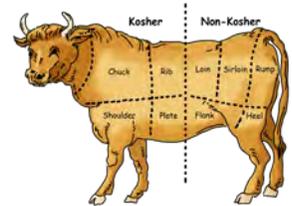

*A lot has happened to Ya'aqob since he left his parent's home. In Parsha Vayeitzei, during his journey to his Uncle Laban's place, Ya'aqob had settled down to sleep on a stone and had a dream from Yahweh. In the dream, Yahweh established His covenant with Ya'aqob, which encouraged him to continue his journey. As we studied in the last parsha, Ya'aqob arrived at his Uncle Laban's home, married his 2 daughters, inherited 2 concubines and fathered 12 children. His 24 years of service to his father-in-law Laban were marked by many challenges and conflicts. In this week's lesson, we see Ya'aqob returning to his homeland with his family and all his possessions, wanting to make amends with his brother Esaw. On his journey he will have another encounter with Elohim. Now, let's read Gen. 32:22-32.

PARSHA POINTS

- On his journey to meet Esaw, Ya'aqob stops for the night at the ford of Yabboq, but sends his family over the stream ahead of him with all their possessions - 32:22-23
- Ya'aqob is left all alone and encounters a Man who engages him in a wrestling (abak) match that endures all night (*The Scriptures do not tell us exactly who this Man was that Ya'aqob wrestled with, but we do know that He was a representative of Elohim) - 32:24
- At daybreak (shachar) the Man touches the socket of Ya'aqob's hip (yarek) and causes it to dislocate - 32:25
- The Man desires to end the wrestling match, but Ya'aqob tells him that he won't let Him go until He blesses him - 32:26

- The Man asks Ya'aqob his name. When Ya'aqob gives the answer, the Man tells him that he will no longer be called Ya'aqob, but from now on his name will be Yisra'el, because he had striven with Elohim and with men, and he overcame - 32:27-28
- Ya'aqob asks the Man's name and the Man answers with the question, "Why do you desire to know My Name?" - 32:29
- After the Man leaves, Ya'aqob declares that he had seen Elohim face to face (Panim el Panim), and his life was spared. Therefore he calls the name of the place Peni'el (meaning, 'Face of El') - 32:30
- As the sun rises, Ya'aqob departs with a limp - 32:31
- The next verse indicates that to this day the children of Yisra'el do not eat the sinew of the hip (back end of an animal) because of this incident - 32:32

DIGGING DEEPER

Parents/Teachers may choose to use these prompts for further discussion of the Torah portion.

- In this parsha we see Ya'aqob on his way to meet Esaw - probably feeling very afraid of this encounter. When Ya'aqob is all alone by the brook, this Man shows up to wrestle with him. Was this a possible test for Ya'aqob, to help him gain a true understanding of how to view Elohim and man? He had to trust, to hold on tight to Elohim and let go of his fear of man. (32:28)
- Research the meaning of the names Ya'aqob and Yisra'el.
- The place Peni'el is also the same as Penu'el. Ya'aqob called it Peni'el (32:30) and then we find it referred to as Penu'el just one verse later (32:31) and in all future verses. Research and find the location of Penu'el and discuss.
- Research why many Jews hold the self-imposed ruling/tradition to avoid eating the sinew of the hip (loin, sirloin, round, flank). What is their reasoning? Note that nowhere in the Scriptures do we find Torah instruction against it.

Searching Out Hebrew

Parents/Teachers can print out the 'Hebrew Pronunciation Guide' to help with the pronunciation of Hebrew names and words. They can be cut out and used in conjunction with the Flashcards.

WORDS

Parents/Teachers see the following page for 3 x 5 card cut outs of the words from this week's parsha. If printed on cardstock, they can be kept in a box to reinforce learning.

Avak (אבק) - to wrestle

Shachar (שחר) - dawn/daybreak

Panim el Panim (פנים אל-פנים) - Face to Face

Yarek (ירך) - hip/thigh

Parents/Teachers can print out these numbers to have as additional resources. These can be found under the 'Resources' tab on the YMTOI website.

There are no numbers for this lesson.
