Parsha Pearls is a comprehensive resource that allows for complete customization by the parent. We understand that if you were to strive to accomplish all aspects of each lesson in one day it would be unrealistic and also overload for the child. It is our intention that this be used 'a la carte' so that it suits your specific needs. Our site caters to printing only the pieces you choose.

This page will provide quick links to get to the portion of the document for which you are looking. When you hover over the title a finger will appear. Click on it and you will be taken directly to that page.

If you are new to Parsha Pearls, we have created an Introduction document outlining how to use our lessons, as well as a Scriptural Inspiration document, which explains our titles and the Scriptural inspiration for them. We pray that Parsha Pearls blesses your home and that your children will grow to love the Word and to never depart from keeping Torah. As always, feel free to email us at parshapearls@mtoi.org if you have any questions.

LITTLE GEMS STORY

Parent/Teacher Preparation:

Please see the Instructions for the Little Gems Story on the YMTOI website. This will help you to understand how to prepare for the story.

Frogs, Gnats and Flies, Oh My!

Shalom children! We are back to hear more of the story of Mosheh. Remember, he was told to go and stand in front of Pharaoh and ask him to let the Hebrews go. Well, on the long way back to Mitsrayim, Mosheh met his brother Aharon, who came alongside to help him. (Place Mosheh and Aharon on board.) But when they reached Mitsrayim and spoke with the Hebrews, the people couldn't really believe they would ever be free to leave, because they had been working hard for so long.

Mosheh told them Yahweh had sent him to help them get out of Mitsrayim, but he himself was not too sure that Pharaoh would listen, even though Yahweh had promised to show signs to Pharaoh to make him believe. It sure would take a lot of signs before Pharaoh would believe! But Yahweh wanted the Hebrew people to see what He was doing so they would be encouraged.

The first thing that Mosheh and his brother Aharon were to do in front of Pharaoh was to take Aharon's rod and throw it on the ground. (Place rod and Pharaoh on board.) That's exactly what they did, and Yahweh made the rod turn into a snake. (Remove rod and place snake on board.) But Pharaoh wasn't too impressed. He asked his magicians to do the same thing, and guess what? They threw down their rods, which all turned into snakes, too. (Place magicians and small snakes on board.) Well, we know Yahweh is still more powerful. The snake that used to be Aharon's rod ate up the magicians' snakes. (Remove small snakes.) Well, Pharaoh still didn't care. He just wanted Mosheh and Aharon to go away. (Remove all characters from board except for Pharaoh.)

Yahweh told Mosheh it was okay, because in the morning Pharaoh would go down to the river, and Mosheh was to meet him there. He was to take the rod and hit the water so it would turn to blood. (Place Mosheh, Aharon, rod, and blue water on board next to Pharaoh.) That's exactly what Mosheh and Aharon did. And all the water turned to blood, and it made the fish die. (Replace blue water with red water. Place dead fish on board.) Oh man, poor fishies! They died just because Pharaoh was stubborn. There was blood everywhere, no one could drink any water from the river, and man, did it stink! Ooh, gross.

Well, wouldn't you know it, there was already nothing to drink with the river being blood, but silly Pharaoh had his magicians do the same thing. Now why would he go and do something like that? Not very smart if you ask me! He just wanted to show off and convince Mosheh that his magicians were just as good as Yahweh. Well, we know better, but Pharaoh didn't care, so he went home and left the Mitsrites to dig for water to drink.

(Remove all characters from board.)

After 7 days, Yahweh told Mosheh to go back to Pharaoh and try again to get him to let the Hebrews go. (Place Mosheh, Aharon, and Pharaoh on board.) Mosheh was to tell Pharaoh that if he didn't let them go, Yahweh was going to make frogs come out of the water and get into everything. Pharaoh still didn't care. So Aharon stretched his rod out over the water (place rod on board) and frogs came up. (Place live frogs on board.)

Well, you won't believe what Pharaoh did. He asked his magicians to see if they could make frogs come up, too! I don't know if this Pharaoh guy was very smart. I certainly wouldn't want to see if there could be more frogs. There were already frogs in the ovens and the bowls and even jumping on the people. Pharaoh was like, "Okay, just ask your Elohim to get rid of the frogs already." So Mosheh said, "Name the time, and my Elohim will get rid of them." Pharaoh said, "Okay, tomorrow." So Mosheh prayed to Yahweh and the frogs died too. Aww, first the fish, now the poor frogs. There were dead frogs everywhere. (Replace live frogs with dead frogs.) They piled them up high, and you think it was stinky before? Now there were smelly dead frogs everywhere. Double gross!

(Remove dead frogs from board.)

Wouldn't you know it, as soon as Pharaoh saw the frogs were gone, he changed his mind and didn't let the Hebrews go. Well, Yahweh knew this was going to happen. He had Mosheh tell his brother Aharon to take the rod again and hit the dust of the earth so that it would become gnats. (Place gnats on board). Aharon did, and this time when that silly Pharaoh asked his magicians to do it too, they couldn't do it. That's a good thing--it was bad enough with the extra frogs. Who wants extra gnats?

The magicians realized this was no magic trick—Yahweh was making this happen. But Pharaoh still didn't care. So Yahweh had Mosheh tell Pharaoh that next there were going to be flies everywhere. They'd be all over the land of Mitsrayim, but this time not in Goshen where the Hebrews lived. Yahweh was not going to make the Hebrews suffer just because Pharaoh was stubborn. So that's what Yahweh did. (Remove gnats from board. Place Mitsrite house on one side of board and Yisra'elite house on other side. Place flies near the Mitsrite house.)

There were flies everywhere, but like an invisible wall, they did not go into the land where the Hebrews were living.

That must have been a pretty cool sight to see. The Hebrews could see flies, but they weren't coming into their houses. I wonder if the gnats were still around. Well, no matter, because Pharaoh had had enough and told Mosheh, "Fine, you can go worship your Elohim here in the land. Just ask your Elohim to make the flies go away." Mosheh said, "No, we have to go into the wilderness to worship Him." So Pharaoh said, "Fine, go. But not too far." So Mosheh asked Yahweh to take the flies away, and He did.

(Remove flies from board.)

Do you think Pharaoh finally stopped being stubborn? Nope, not yet. Yahweh knew that, and He told Mosheh to warn Pharaoh that now He was going to send a sickness that would make all of the camels, donkeys, sheep, cows, and horses get so sick that they would die. But only the animals on the Mitsrayim side would die, and the Hebrew side would be okay. Oh no! More innocent animals died. Good thing the Hebrew animals didn't die. Pharaoh sent someone just to see, and sure enough, not one of the Hebrews' animals had died. (Place live animals by Yisra'elite house and dead animals by Mitsrite house.) But even seeing that, Pharaoh still didn't let the people go.

(Remove animals from board.)

This time, Yahweh told Mosheh to take some ashes and throw them up in the air. The dust went everywhere, and it made painful bumps get all over the Mitsrites and the animals that were left. (Place Mitsrites with sores and animals with sores on board.) Even the magicians had bumps, and they stayed in their rooms. (Place magicians with boils on board.) Ouch, that's no fun. Maybe now that the Mitsrite people were getting some bad stuff, they would talk Pharaoh into listening to Mosheh. Do you think Pharaoh heard? No, of course not. He was as stubborn as ever, and he still didn't let the Hebrews go.

(Remove all characters from board.)

But Yahweh already knew Pharaoh was going to be this way. He used Pharaoh and his stubbornness so that year after year, people would hear these stories and recognize that Yahweh is who He said He is.

Mosheh told Pharaoh that the next day there was going to be hail coming down from the sky. He said, "Make sure you bring any workers and animals inside their houses, so they do not die, because it's going to be pretty bad." Well, some of the Mitsrites listened and put their animals and workers away, but some, who were stubborn like Pharaoh, didn't bring their workers and animals inside.

(Place Mosheh on board.) Mosheh stretched out his rod, and hail started coming down hard. (Place hail on board.) There was thunder and fire. (Place thunder, hail and fire on board.) It was really bad. The people and animals that were still outside all died. The trees and the plants died. (Place dead trees and plants on board.) Not all of them, though, because some of them had not started getting very big yet.

Well, you would think that after all of that, Pharaoh would let the Hebrews go. But no, of course not. He was as stubborn as ever and wouldn't let the people go. But Yahweh already knew that.

Well children, a lot has happened hasn't it? Yahweh promised to help the people be able to get out of Mitsrayim, and there is still more to come. But for today, that is all. We will see you next week for another exciting Little Gems story!

STORING UP TREASURE IN MY HEART

The Katan Aleph memory verse for this Torah portion is Exodus 8:1. If they have not already done so, begin to help them to memorize the verse. Be creative and try acting it out, or putting it to music.

Exodus
8:1

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, Thus said Yahweh, Let My people go, so that they serve Me."

MEMORY VERSE

SEEKING TREASURE

Circle the correct choices.

1. Who did Mosheh take with him to see Pharaoh? (7:7)

Abraham

Aharon

Malkitsedeq

Yoseph

2. What happened to Aharon's rod when he threw it to the ground? (7:10)

3. What happened when Aharon stretched the rod over the waters? (7:19)

4. Which plagues could Pharaoh's magicians also create? Circle all that apply. (7:22; 8:7, 18)

5. Whose heart was hardened over and over? (7:13, 14, 22, 23; 8:15, 19, 32; 9:7, 12)

CRAFT

10 Plagues Wheel

Exodus 7:15 -9:26

Special Note:

We have provided 2 crafts depicting the plagues since the first 7 plagues are covered in parsha Va'eira and the last 3 plagues are covered in parsha Bo. You can choose to do this craft or the one found in next week's Torah portion Bo.

You can also choose to do the first 7 plagues this week and complete it next week or do the alternate craft found in next week's Torah portion Bo over 2 weeks giving you 2 years of crafts.

Materials:

- Cardstock - white
- Brad
- Scissors
- Coloring pencils, crayons or markers
- Craft Templates: A & B (BW) or C & D (color)

Parent/Teacher Preparation:

- Print Craft Templates A & B or C & D on white cardstock.

Instructions for the Craft:

Parsha Va'era

- If using BW Templates, color using medium of choice.
- You can choose to color all the plagues or just the first 7 (א, ב, ג, ד, ה, ו, ז) on Craft Template B as they relate to this week's parsha and save the last 3 for next week's parsha Bo.
- Cut out Templates A & B or C & D. (P1)
- Cut out pie slice shape on cover. (P2)
- Using a puncturing tool, poke a hole through the + sign on Craft Template A or C (cover) and the center of Craft Template B or D (plagues). (P3)
- Push a brad through the holes and open legs on the back side. (P4)

Instructions for the Craft Cont'd:

Parsha Bo

- Disassemble the wheel and color the last 3 plagues ( נ, ו, ז ) on Craft Template B or D.
- Reassemble the wheel.

This may be a good time to review the plagues or maybe play a game to see if they can name the plagues before they are uncovered.

- The plagues become visible one at a time as the cover is turned. (P5-P14)

You now have a visual representation of the 10 plagues of Mitsrayim along with the protection Yahweh bestowed on the land of Goshen where the Yisra'elites dwelt for the last 7 plagues.

Oh Listen, Oh Listen

Oh listen, Oh listen, Oh listen King Pharaoh
Oh listen, oh listen, please let My people go
They want to go away, they work so hard all day
King Pharaoh, King Pharaoh, what do you say?

"No, no, no, I will not let them go!" (2x)

One Morning

One morning when Pharaoh awoke in his bed
There were frogs in his bed and frogs on his head
Frogs on his nose and frogs on his toes
Frogs here, frogs there, frogs were jumping everywhere

SWEET TASTE OF TORAH

This snack relates to this week's parsha. Please take these as suggestions and make necessary changes based on your individual dietary needs.

Snake

Exodus 7:10

Strawberries and Banana Snake

Ingredients:

- 2-4 strawberries
- 1 banana
- 2 candy eyes
- 1 red Fruit Roll-Up (to make snake's tongue)
- Optional: marshmallow fluff (to adhere candy eyes and to hold snake together)

Instructions:

Set largest strawberry aside for the head. Slice the remaining strawberries and the banana into medium-sized slices about 1/4 inch. Save one end piece of a strawberry to make the snake's tail.

You may use marshmallow fluff to adhere the 2 candy eyes to the top of the snake's head as well as in between the bananas and strawberry snake body.

Line the sliced strawberries and bananas behind the whole strawberry in a snake like pattern. Add the small tip of one of the strawberries at the end for a rattle tail.

Cut a slit at the front of the whole strawberry to create a 'mouth'.

Take your Fruit Roll-Up and cut 2 thin strips to make a forked 'tongue'. Place the strips inside the slit of the mouth.

Nutter Butter Snake

Ingredients:

- 1 Nutter Butter cookie
- 2 candy eyes
- 1 red Fruit Roll-Up (to make snake's tongue)
- Optional: marshmallow fluff (to adhere candy eyes to cookie)

Instructions:

Place 2 candy eyes on the top of the cookie. You may use marshmallow fluff to adhere the eyes. Take your Fruit Roll-Up and cut 2 thin strips to make your tongue. Place the strips in between the cookie.
