

WALK, WALK! (Deut. 8:7-8, KATAN A)

Sherry Shirah Wendling

Let's walk to the Promised Land
Let's walk to the Promised Land
Pomegranates, dates and figs!
Never seen any grapes so big
Let's thank Yah-weh for His Promised Land

Let's walk to the Promised Land
Let's walk to the Promised Land
Wheat and barley for our bread—
Olive oil upon our heads
Let's thank Yah-weh for His Promised Land

Chorus: Walk! Walk! Keep moving along
 Walk-walk! Don't-stop! Be brave and strong
 This wilder-ness is dry and rough
 Until our King says, <“That's enough!”> (spoken)

Let's walk to the Promised Land
Let's walk to the Promised Land
We'll grow the crops He loves the best
Peaceful fruits of righteousness
Let's thank Yah-weh for His Promised Land

Chorus: Walk! Walk! Keep moving along
Walk-walk! Don't-stop! Be brave and strong
This wilder-ness is dry and rough
Until our King says, <“That's enough!”> (spoken)

We're walking to the Promised Land
We're walking to the Promised Land
We'll grow the crops He loves the best
The peaceful fruits of righteousness
Let's thank Yah-weh
Let's thank Yah-weh
Let's thank Yah-weh
For His Promised Land!

Spoken: <Walk-walk! Don't-stop!>
