- Sand
- Cellophane or tissue paper - red (for fire)
- Pen
- Optional: black and brown thin chenille stems (for dead branches and leaves)
- Optional: seeds (for grain)
- Notebook Templates: Main Page & Template A

Parent/Teacher preparation:

- Review the instructions below and determine if you want to do the sand step the day before or early in the day to make sure it has plenty of time to dry. Simply color around the dry sand later.
- Print the Main Page and Notebook Template A on white card stock.

Instructions for the notebook page:

- Color around the map, using blue for the water on the left side and the Yarden River. Use the color green for grass on the right side of the map. Color the map a sandy color or leave it blank. (P1)
- Pour glue on the map.
- Use the sponge brush to spread the glue creating a thick layer.
- Pour sand on the map covering the whole map and outside of it. (P2)
- Shake the excess sand off and set the map aside to dry.
- Color all the items on Notebook Template A. (P3)
- Cut the items out making sure not to cut the tabs off.

PRECIOUS POSSESSIONS

Optional items

- Cut small pieces of the chenille stems so that it covers the branches on the trees and the fronds on the date palms. (P4)
- Hot glue chenille pieces in place. Set aside.
- Glue a few seeds in different parts of the grain stalks. Set aside to dry. (P5)

Hebrew Words

- Cut 2 small rectangles from the scraps of your card stock for the Hebrew words. Write:
 - 1) Serephah
 - 2) שרפה
 - 3) Burning
 - 1) Esev
 - 2) עשב
 - 3) Grass
- Cut small pieces of the red cellophane or tissue paper. Twist the pieces to make it look like flames. Set aside. (P6)

Assembling page

- Check to make sure the sand is dry enough, if this step was not done the day before.
- Using a black marker, draw lines all over the sand to look like arid desert. (P7)
- Glue the flames in different places all over the map. (P8)
- Check to make sure your seeds are dry.
- Bend all the tabs on the items from Notebook Template A.
- Begin gluing the crops all over the map; the order is up to you.
- Glue the man and woman somewhere on the grassy side outside of the land of Yisra'el.
- Glue the word for burning close to one of the 'flames'.
- Glue the word for grass somewhere on the grassy side. Draw some blades of grass near the word.

This is a visual of the passage that tells the Yisra'elites what would happen to the land if they disobeyed.
