Parsha Pearls is a comprehensive resource that allows for complete customization by the parent. We understand that if you were to strive to accomplish all aspects of each lesson in one day it would be unrealistic and also overload for the child. It is our intention that this be used 'a la carte' so that it suits your specific needs. Our site caters to printing only the pieces you choose.

This page will provide quick links to get to the portion of the document for which you are looking. When you hover over the title a finger will appear. Click on it and you will be taken directly to that page.

If you are new to Parsha Pearls, we have created an Introduction document outlining how to use our lessons, as well as a Scriptural Inspiration document, which explains our titles and the Scriptural inspiration for them. We pray that Parsha Pearls blesses your home and that your children will grow to love the Word and to never depart from keeping Torah. As always, feel free to email us at parshapearls@mtoi.org if you have any questions.

LITTLE GEMS STORY

Choose Life

Shalom children! Welcome back to another Little Gems story! Last week, we talked about the first-fruits and the 3rd year tithe that the Yisra'elites are to bring before the priest and before Yahweh. (Place first-fruits on board.) In this week's story, Mosheh is still talking to the people about everything that Yahweh is commanding them. (Place older Mosheh on board.) He is getting really close to the end of his speech now, and soon the people will get to cross over into the land of Kena'an to start a new chapter of their lives. Mosheh is getting near the end of his life and will not be going with them, so Yehoshua will become their leader when it is time for them to go into the land. (Place older Yehoshua on board.) But right now, they are listening to Mosheh while they are still camped in the land of Mo'ab.

Okay, so let's see what else Yahweh wants the Yisra'elites to know about their covenant with Him. Mosheh tells them that they are to guard the words of Yahweh's covenant and to do them. And he says that if they do this, they will prosper and will have a good quality of life. Mosheh tells them that these instructions are not just for some of them, but for all of them: the leaders, all the tribes, the old people, the young people, the men, the women, and even the people who are journeying and working with them. And that includes people who were not actually standing there at that moment. (Place leaders, 12 tribes, older couple, group of Yisra'elites, and non-Yisra'elites on board.)

Mosheh warns the people that if they do not listen to Yahweh and instead decide to serve other mighty ones, things won't go very well for them. He tells them that being stubborn and rebellious leads to bad things happening, like being separated from Yisra'el, suffering sickness and famine, and even their land being cursed. (Place the word 'curses' on board and scatter people all over the board.) Yikes! I'm sure that made them very sad. (Place sad Yisra'elites on board.)

But wait! There is good news coming! Mosheh tells them that when they turn away from Yahweh and all this bad stuff happens to them, they can still make a choice to come back and follow Yahweh. And when they start listening to Him and return to Him with all their heart and with all their being, then Yahweh will gather them back together as His people again! (Place the word 'blessings' on board, and regather people on board into a group.) And then many, many good things will come. Yay! (Replace sad Yisra'elites with happy Yisra'elites, and place land of Kena'an scene and baskets of food on board.)

The people are reminded that these mitzvot are not too hard to do. Nobody has to go up to the heavens and bring something down for them so that they can do it. They can make the choice themselves. They can choose life and blessing if they listen and obey.

Here is an example that many of us can understand. Your parents, or the other adults who look after you, would not tell you that you needed to do something if they knew you wouldn't be able to do it. When they tell you that you need to clean your room, brush your teeth, eat your vegetables, or do your schoolwork, they know that if you really work hard and give it your best effort, then you will be able to do these things. (Place sock, toothbrushes, vegetables, and schoolbooks on board.) And when we are obedient and listen to the people who are teaching us these things, it helps us have a better quality of life. If we don't do these things, what could happen? (We may get sick, get bad grades in our classes, lose our toys, etc.)

Here's another example. Have you ever seen very small children learning how to walk, talk, eat, or dress? (Place walking toddlers on board.) You might not remember being that small, but learning the skills that are needed takes effort on their part. They might not get it right the first time, and so they have to practice. But eventually, if they follow the instructions of their parents and caretakers, they get it and they are able to do these things on their own.

The message here is that we can do it! Mosheh is telling the Yisra'elites that if they will listen and obey and love Yahweh by doing the things in the Torah (place girl and boy holding Torah scroll on board) that we have spent so many weeks learning about, then Yahweh will bless them and give them life. How wonderful that is for them and for us!

Well children, we have come to the end of our story for today. We will see you next week for another exciting Little Gems story!

I Choose Life*

Deuteronomy 30:19

You have set before us, two ways for us to go
In the valley of decision, I'll cleave to You Yahweh
Upholding Your precepts, obeying Your commands
You will lead us, Father, into the Promised Land

Chorus:

I choose life, I choose blessing
I choose to honor You, Yahweh
I choose life, I choose blessing, I choose to live by Your Word
I choose life

You've called us to be a people, a nation set apart
Your own prized possession, who will know the Father's heart
So we're turning back to You Yah, to walk in Your holy ways
As I stand between the mountains, I will choose to obey

I choose life, L'chaim
I choose life, L'chaim
I choose life
